

House Resolution No. 2469

Whereas, as the 2002-2003 school year draws to a close, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to applaud the career achievements of those individuals who are retiring from the field of education; and

Whereas, the School of the Osage R-II School District is losing a valuable member of its faculty with the retirement of Sara Lyn Yearian Calvin who has devoted thirty-four years of her life to the education of this state's young citizens through tireless endeavors as a teacher; and

Whereas, Sara Calvin has taught second and third grades for twenty-nine years at School of the Osage, where she is held in high esteem as an educator who demonstrates considerable competence and remarkable degrees of compassion and understanding; and

Whereas, deeply committed to the great cause of learning, Sara Calvin also taught in the Missouri communities of Bevier, Troy, and Salem; and

Whereas, Sara Calvin has watched her pupils grow, develop, and mature through the knowledge she has imparted to them both as a teacher and as a friend; and

Whereas, a member of Delta Zeta and the National Education Association, Sara Calvin earned a Bachelor's degree in education at Truman State University in 1965; and

Whereas, the daughter of Jack and Eunice Yearian, Sara Calvin has been blessed with the love and support of a wonderful family whose members include her husband of thirty-nine years, Ron Calvin, and three children, Melissa, Amy, and Chris:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join the School of the Osage R-II School District in expressing appreciation for the unparalleled service that Sara Calvin has rendered to Missouri's children and in wishing her the long, fruitful, and enjoyable retirement that she so justly deserves with ample opportunity to travel, read, play golf, and spend more time with her loved ones; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Sara Lynn Yearian Calvin, as a measure of our esteem for her.
